Sandra: Although you and I have been together only since last year our friendship has grown to be as tight, nearly as the bond that ties Judith and me. I think that the best I ever was tickled was when you put lard instead of butter in the sandies, and then to top it all dropped them in the floor. Boy! did that make Mrs. Robinson mad. After you finish at Marshall High School I sincerely hope that the best in life will be offered to you. You may have to work for it, but by working you will appreciate it more. You are one of the nicest and friendliest girls at school. I have sincerely enjoyed romping the halls, listening to you know who in history, quarreling over the fullest bags of bagginess, telling lies about home projects we never did at all (at least I didn't) ect. I enjoyed visiting in your home and having you in mine. Your parents are wonderful people. May God always bless you and yours.
Love, Mary Lynn West

We Honor . . .

In sympathy with his determination to make Marshall an outstanding school; in admiration of his effort to be a detached and impartial administrator, and his ability to see each of his 1200 pupils as individuals; in appreciation of the consistent good humor with which he approaches all problems, this volume of the ISLANDER is dedicated to MR. ROBERT LEE EDWARDS.

Foreword

The Staff of the ISLANDER, in behalf of the Class of 1961, presents this volume, hoping that in the coming years it may help recall some of the experiences of our twelve years as pupils in the Marshall High School.

A collage of 25 black and white photographs from the 1950s, featuring students in various settings: outdoors, in front of buildings, and in groups. Some photos are signed in blue ink. The photos are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some overlapping. The subjects are mostly young people, likely students, engaged in various activities and posing for the camera. The settings include outdoor areas with trees, buildings with porches, and groups of people sitting or standing together. Some photos have handwritten signatures in blue ink, such as "Shirley" and "G.W.".
